

Driven by innovation and his passion for sport, Naveen Aranha turned entrepreneur at the age of 19. He went on to found Sportz Interactive, a 500-people sports tech, data and content company that has truly revolutionised the sports fan experience for two decades.

He began this year with an expedition in Antarctica as part of his insatiable appetite for travel and exploring every part of the world with his wife and young daughter.

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/sportzman/>