

OPENING FOR: PYP Teacher Librarian

DIVISION: PYP - JUNIOR SCHOOL

LOCATION: MARINE LINES

WHAT YOU WILL BE DOING

- Manage and maintain the Primary School Library as a dynamic, student-centered learning space.
- Collaborate with PYP teachers to support inquiry-based learning and curriculum delivery.
- Develop students' information literacy, research skills, and digital citizenship.
- Promote a love for reading through library programs, literacy events, and reading initiatives.
- Curate and manage print and digital resources that support the IB PYP curriculum and student learning needs.

WHAT WE ARE LOOKING FOR

- Bachelor's Degree in Library Science, Education, English, Literature, or a related field.
- Professional qualification in Library and Information Science (B.Lib./M.Lib. or equivalent).
- Minimum 3 years of experience as a School Librarian or Teacher Librarian.
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and organizational skills.
- Experience working in an IB PYP or international school setting.
- Knowledge of inquiry-based learning and the IB framework.
- Experience with library management systems and digital resources.

We are looking for an experienced and passionate PYP Teacher Librarian. The role involves collaborating with teachers, supporting students' research and information literacy skills, promoting a love of reading, and managing library resources effectively.
